ELO 9 cobalt blue 1/2 oz bottles $63.33

The essences of light™ resonate to core, archetypal energies within you as an individual, and through you to the collective consciousness. They deliver an exceptional level of clarification and illumination supporting universal transformation and ascension.

We are moving through exciting and challenging times personally, globally, and universally. essences of light™ support you to refocus your life in Light by paying attention to yourself---body, mind, soul, and emotions---and making conscious choices to support yourself every day. In honoring and loving yourself, you touch everyone and everything around you with honor and love. A true blessing!

There are many things you can do in your outer life to support the Earth: recycle, use water wisely, honor people, the land and all of nature. However, if you do all these things and remain toxic within your own mind and heart, your outer work is diminished.

The Earth is healing Herself. It us up to us to honor Her clarity of purpose by focusing on our own healing. And we must do this using the power of the heart, from Love. Maintain your center of power, your Heart center, first, and you will aid the Earth and all sentient beings in maintaining theirs.

Call on the archetypal energies of the essences of light™ to access and embody your experience of transformation and share it with everyone you meet.
